

Passages of Life

The poetry is the most abstract literary art, being able to transmit profound messages in few words. In the Life Journey, men are travelers that trail this path several times without noticing the meaning of this. In this book, there are many passages of daily life that contain messages for Life, which may not be easily perceived. Thus, my poetry style makes analogies with the Nature and invites the reader to ponder about the greater system of Life and to the introspective adventure of self-knowledge. This invitation is that men do not become mere passengers, but may awake the be aware of the complex Life System and finally become the lords of their destinies, coexisting in harmony and steadily evolving in this journey.
