

A Civil Contract

When his father, the Viscount Lynton, dies unexpectedly, Adam Deveril abandons soldiering to return to his ancestral homeonly to find the estate plagued by debt and the abundant land wilted with neglect. He must either sell everything and leave his family impoverishedor find a wealthy bride.Raised in privilege, Jenny Chawleigh is the only daughter of a dotting, self-made financier whos determined to elevate his daughters status in society. But to do that Jenny must marry into nobility. And the new Viscount Lynton seems quite suitable.But while society politely applauds the fortuitous marriage, Adam is still possessed by the thought of another womanthe one he couldnt marry
