

The First Men in the Moon (Alien Voices Presents)

In this fully-dramatized performance of H.G. Wells classic, The First Men in the Moon, Leonard Nimoy, John de Lancie, and cast members from Star Trek feature films and all four TV series take you on an incredible journey. Written at a time when the idea of traveling to the moon was considered ludicrous, The First Men in the Moon tells the remarkable story of daring scientists who attempt to reach Earth's satellite...and succeed. But when they reach the moon, they encounter a lunar civilization unlike anything they could have imagined -- and face dangers beyond their greatest fears. Featuring virtuoso performances from the entire cast, riveting sound effects, and original music, Alien Voices production of The First Men in the Moon is an adventure in sound.
