

Andre Chenier a Saint-Lazare (French Edition)

Elme-Marie Caro, ne a Poitiers le 4 mars 1826 et mort a Paris le 13 juillet 1887, est un philosophe spiritualiste et critique litteraire francais. Nouvelle edition adaptee aux liseuses, ecrit en 1875 dans la Revue des Deux Mondes. Extrait :Depuis quelque temps, les documents se sont multiplies sur la vie et la mort dun de nos poetes les plus aimes, Andre Chenier. Une serie de circonstances favorables et dheureuses decouvertes a permis a la sympathie publique de suivre le poete presque jour par jour, surtout dans la derniere partie de son existence, de le voir a l'uvre, combattant a visage decouvert et dun c?ur intrepide les doctrines et les hommes de la terreur, qui sannoncait longtemps avant lheure de son regne officiel. Un critique passionne pour la gloire de son jeune heros, M. Becq de Fouquieres, a devoue plusieurs annees de recherches, non-seulement a commenter ses ?uvres poetiques et ses ?uvres en prose, moins connues, tout aussi dignes de letre, mais aussi a recueillir et a classer toutes les informations qui peuvent eclaire lhistoire douloureuse de sa captivite et de son proces. En meme temps quen son nom personnel et avec un zele que rien ne lassait M. Becq de Fouquieres conduisait cette enquete, le neveu du poete, M. Gabriel de Chenier, se decidait enfin a nous donner ce que la famille nous devait depuis longtemps, la publication integrale, authentique des manuscrits, plusieurs fois consultes par la critique savante, jamais epuises jusqu'a ce jour. Cette edition, a certains egards definitifs, sinon pour la correction du texte, au moins pour la restitution totale du poetique tresor, a ete completee par une notice ou se trouvent rassembles, sous une forme simple et familiere, tous les souvenirs et les traditions de la famille.
