

Celestial Spheres

Celestial Spheres by Debra Lyn Negus I feel the emptiness that exists within. A void as dark as the deepest night; I am the spark, Who will fill your soul with light. Open your mind to me, And then your heart; Release the fear within, Replace this with love. This insightful collection of poetry by Debra Lyn Negus tells of relinquishing the negative emotions in our hearts and letting love in, resonating with readers who believe everything in the universe is meant to exist for eternity. About the Author Debra Lyn Negus works with the developmentally disabled for the State of New York. She attended OCC/Cornell University for Labor Studies. Debra has two sons David, who died in 2002 while a Marine stationed in Camp LeJune, North Carolina; and Jason, who resides in Upstate New York. Debra enjoys nature, residing on Sandy Pond/Lake Ontario with her Siberian husky, Maya. Debras interests include but are not limited to photography, reading, current events, history, the study of all religions and spirituality, traveling, writing, and poetry. Debra has had numerous works published in both England and the U.S. (2012, paperback, 96 pages)
