

Sanguelascivia Novellas Trio: Paranormal Romance (Anam Ceile Chronicles Book 12)

Trio Set of novellas showcasing the tantalizing stories of three sexy performers of Sanguelascivia, exclusive Erotic theatre for Vampires. The Submission of Giuliana As I lay there being taken by two men, my orgasm swept through me, yet it was for another who had pleased me only in the realm of my mind. Giuliana never dreamed life would lead her to where she is now - serving as a courtesan in the swanky vampire theatre Sanguelascivia in Venice, Italy. Some days, she hates to admit, she loves her job - what woman wouldn't enjoy being sexually pleased in a variety of new ways every day? And still other days, she cannot believe she has lowered herself to this. Then there are the Vampire patrons to whom she is expected to submit and service privately after the shows. Her life at Sanguelascivia is in severe contrast to the simple life she once knew with her husband and child. But she no longer allows herself to think of them. Giuliana vowed she would never love again. That is, until she sees Vincenzo her first night at the theatre and something stirs deep within her. Night after night she aches as she watches him perform. Will she ever feel him against her skin, feel his lips hot upon hers, feel him moving inside of her? The Love of Vincenzo The first time I laid eyes upon her, I was instantly mesmerized by her softness, her beauty. I knew at once that I was done for... Never would I want another woman. Vincenzo was reasonably happy with his life. He had a stylish place to live and a job most other men would die for-- having sex with multiple partners every night and servicing wealthy clients in the VIP. For years now, he had been one of the star performers at Sanguelascivia. But then Giuliana wandered in to the club, a destitute young widow who had nowhere else to turn. She was nothing like the other women there at Sanguelascivia. Perhaps it was merely because Giuliana was not yet hardened by this lifestyle. She was beautiful in a soft and compassionate kind of way that he had not known in a long time. Never has Vincenzo seen anyone quite like her. And now, he cannot seem to get her out of his mind. Nor does he want to. Vincenzo begins fantasizing about Giuliana during every performance. Then he must agonizingly witness her performances. Will he be able to stand it, or will his emotion get the better of him? Will they ever be scheduled to perform together? But then something happens which forces Vincenzo to act quick, altering the course of both of their fates forever. He has to make the most difficult choice of his life-- face execution or flee Sanguelascivia- and the woman he loves. The Seduction of Gretchen I know that I should not allow myself to be vulnerable to a Vampire as this, but he has me so hot, how can I possibly deny him? He is my Vampire and I am his. Gretchen has worked at Sanguelascivia as an erotic performer for years, done it all, seen it all. She thought she had grown numb to the Vampires whom she was required to service. It was just a job. They were just the clientele. That is, until the night Lucius shows up. While on stage in the midst of her performance, Gretchen first locks eyes with him, his gleaming blue eyes never departing from her. With every move she makes, she feels him watching her. She expects him to be there after the performance to request her, but he is nowhere to be seen. Perplexed, Gretchen tries to brush him from her mind, yet hard as she may try, she cannot. What is it about him? No man-- human or Vampire-- has ever had her feeling quite like this, has ever penetrated her soul as he had. What is happening to her? Then again he is there boring into her with cryptic eyes. And once more, he disappears before the end of the night. She finds herself fantasizing over this Vampire-- something which she never thought she would do. Next time, she'll be damned if he slips away again. Gretchen discovers Lucius has a delicious secret which she never dreamed possible...
