

Banish Plump Jack

Returning to Britain in 1951 after working in the USA for several years, Professor Robert Shallow intends to consider his future. He travels to Stratford on Avon to deliver a lecture on Shakespeare and there meets up with his actor nephew, Jeremy, and also unexpectedly renews an old acquaintance with John Fenwick. When Jeremy and Fenwick appear to have had a serious fight, and then another attempt is made on Fenwick's life for which Jeremy is apparently well and truly in the frame, Shallow turns detective. The deeper he digs the more it seems that no one is who they appear to be.
