

Stories Beyond Belief

Sarah has written four stories in this book that deal with the unusual and sometimes the bizarre. These stories explore areas of the imagination that leave the reader thinking about various aspects of mental health and questions whether or not certain things are real or imaginary. In the first story Understanding Jodie the author questions the moral ethics of a teenage girl. The second story Living with Faith is about an angel learning to protect others living as a mortal. The third story is Alisons lifelong diary questioning her poor lifestyle following her death, only to experience her life again with radical changes. Finally the most bizarre of all stories The secret life Helen Harris about a woman who wants to change her life and is helped but with drastic consequences.
