

Over and Beyond: A Rightful Heirs Deadly Surprise

Francois Monet, architect of the Monet Business Empire has passed on, leaving vast wealth and power to a single heir-his grandson, Marcus Monet, who knows nothing about it. The heroine, her distant family, their assets and lives - are in danger. Your name is Marcus Monet. You have a normal life. Your family is very close; you have a successful career as the vice-president of your family's company. You have average problems like everyone else. Your life seems to be in order but...What if a family member, whom you never met, showed up on your door, bearing news that a distant relative, who is extremely rich and successful, has just died and left enormous amounts of money, businesses, and status in a far-off land? You discover that your life is now turned upside-down because:- You had no previous knowledge that you had a cousin,- you had a grandfather you never met, who has died, leaving a fortune,- you are sole-heir to the domain and have an uncle who is trying to kill you to get it all,- your father knows nothing about any of it, your immediate family is suddenly in danger,- your home is no longer a safe-haven forcing travel to a foreign country,...and you have less than a week to settle it all. Packed with action and nonstop thrills, this gripping novel pits a successful American businessman against a ruthless underworld criminal in an epic battle over the family fortune.
