

Awake Unto Me: Selected Poems

Running In the Evening I've run until my
breath has gone away;
the rising winds
disturb the forbidding sands;
the cacti rustle
with the close of day,
their blackened forms
in all directions stand.
My eyes are dazed
from the shimmering heat, the lemon-gusts
of sage dry out my nose;
I look around as
evening, like a sheet of darkened blue, to moonless blackness grows.
A windless
rustle eerily crawls
away against horizons
always past my sight
I can't be sure
now-what has come
my way could be the wind-or something
from the night-
And as the darkness
chills my sun-burned skin, I sense the desert
slowly closing in.
