

Breaking and Entering:: Jobs in 911

Public safety dispatching is a very obscure career. Dispatchers are the heroes behind the scenes; heard but seldom seen. It is not an easy job to learn, with high turnover and stress. Dispatch centers across the nation are constantly short-staffed and lack qualified applicants. Yet, it is a career with personal rewards beyond belief. If you have an interest in becoming a dispatcher, this is one of the most comprehensive books you can add to your library. It will guide you through the hiring process and your first year of training. It will provide suggestions to help you learn. Gain the advantage now!
