

Concrete (Faber Finds)

Thomas Bernhard (1931-1989) has been hailed by Gabriel Josipovici as Austria's finest postwar writer and by George Steiner as one of the masters of contemporary European fiction. Faber Finds is proud to reissue a selection of four of Bernhard's finest novels. Concrete (1982) is a brilliant and haunting tale of procrastination, failure, and despair: the story of Rudolph, a Viennese musicologist, who neglects the work he is meant to be producing in favour of this dark and grotesquely funny account of small woes writ large, of profound horrors detailed and rehearsed to the point of distraction: from a meddling sister and a house that he hates, to an illness he carefully nurses, his own very real writer's block, and an escape to Majorca which brings him no release from himself.
