

Carters Conundrums - Book 1 of Meredith Pinks adventures in Egypt

Praise for the Meredith Pink series: An ancient Egyptian mystery wrapped up in a modern adventure story. Fast-paced and action-packed. A fantastic romp of a book. Egypt ancient and modern brought to life. When English tourist Meredith (Merry) Pink finds herself inadvertently locked in the Howard Carter museum in Luxor for the night, she has no idea about the thrilling Egyptian adventure she's about to embark upon. The museum was once Howard Carter's home, where he lived during the historic years of his discovery and clearance of Tutankhamun's tomb in the Valley of the Kings. Attempting to break free, Merry accidentally smashes the frame surrounding an original Carter watercolour of an elusive Egyptian Queen. The discovery of a hidden message inside from Howard Carter himself, together with a set of mysterious hieroglyphics, sets her off on a quest to solve the puzzle of a lifetime. Along the way she teams up with the dashing Adam Tennyson, a self-proclaimed thwarted Egyptologist. Together, they set about unriddling the ancient texts, and find themselves on a madcap treasure hunt around some of Egypt's most thrilling locations. An exciting blend of adventure, mystery and romance, Carters Conundrums will demand all of Merry's imagination and love of the fabled ancient land of the Pharaohs to keep her on the trail, and out of trouble. Takes the reader on an exciting journey with mystique, romance and intrigue. I especially enjoyed the vivid descriptions of Egypt and the way the author weaves Egyptian history through her story while keeping the plot rattling along at a great pace. I was completely drawn into the plot amongst the temples and tombs, with the wonderful backdrop of the river Nile. If you like escapist fiction with an exotic location and a sprinkling of romance and humour, you'll love the Meredith Pink series
