

Chatroom (NHB Modern Plays)

A chilling, blackly comic tale of manipulation, cyberbullying and adolescent insecurity. In a quiet corner of the internet, a group of bored, restless teenagers spends its time deconstructing childrens literature and the messages in modern pop music. But when a new member joins to share his depression and thoughts of suicide, the conversation takes a darker turn. A powerful depiction of modern-day isolation and the dangerous power of technology, Chatroom formed part of the National Theatres 2005 Connections season, where it starred Matt Smith and Andrew Garfield. A vivid picture of teenage angst and insecurity Guardian Powerful and disturbing The Stage Keenly believable... enthralling Financial Times
