

Alpine Slide

Ben Adams is a former FBI agent who killed a DEA agent in a bad shoot. He did five years at Pelican Bay for his mistake. He now lives at the beach in a fog of surf and medium-grade alcoholism. A simple trip to Baja and a plane crash set his life on a dangerous collision course with the FBI and a drug cartel high in the Colorado Rockies. The second novel from former Special Agent Jeremy DeConcini takes readers high into the mountains and over the edge in the dead of winter. Bundle up because the full body count wont be known until springtime.
