

We Start With Pain and End Proud

We dont realize what we are doing until it is done. We search for someone to stimulate love, to make us feel like we belong in their world; in many ways our belonging brings a sense of order in our own lives, a chaos to be reckoned with. We continue forth upon the trials that love delivers us, and with logic forward do we create a mockery. Then our love is gone, for reasons that trivial, for reasons that are profound. Solemn and with respect for a new kind of invocation, a romance with pain. We always keep close to us after that loss a new consciousness of strength and will; a new foundation and realization that We Start With Pain and End Proud.
