PRIMO in classifica nella TOP 100 BESTSELLERS Amazon nel periodo di promozione gratuita dal 26 al 28 ottobre 2014. Dall'autrice del best seller digitale Puoi chiamarmi Luca Lara Isabel ha trentanni, un lavoro che non le piace, tanti amici e un amore impossibile che non riesce a risolvere. Dora ha ottantaquattro anni e una pena profonda nel cuore, un dolore antico che si porta dietro da più di mezzo secolo. Entrambe vivono nel centro storico di Ancona dove, in seguito ad un incontro casuale, nasce la loro straordinaria amicizia che, attraverso strane coincidenze e tristi ricordi, le porterà a rivivere la vicenda dei bombardamenti aerei che devastarono la città durante la seconda guerra mondiale. Lara Isabel vuole a tutti i costi aiutare Dora a superare il terribile senso di colpa che non l'ha mai abbandonata da quando, proprio sotto le bombe, perse sua cugina Giorgia e l'amica del cuore Myriam, costretta a fuggire dalle persecuzioni razziali, senza aver potuto risolvere alcune incomprensioni reciproche. Le indagini portano la ragazza in una vecchia e pittoresca pensione, nella cui soffitta alcuni misteri potrebbero essere svelati Doric Hotel e una fiaba metropolitana, intimistica ed emozionante, sui valori dell'amicizia e della memoria storica, ma e al contempo il romanzo di formazione di una giovane donna che, in lotta con i propri sentimenti per dimenticare un amore difficile, scoprirà, senza quasi rendersene conto, una più matura ed equilibrata consapevolezza di sé.

- Una ricostruzione storica aderente alla realtà (Attilio Pancioni, scrittore ed ex giornalista Rai).
- Doric Hotel si fa leggere tutto d'un fiato (Antonio Luccarini, storico e critico letterario).
- Se si dovesse raccontare questo libro in una sola parola, sarebbe viaggio (Stefano Pagliarini, il Messaggero).
- Una narrazione volutamente anti intellettualistica e piacevolmente pop (Valentina Conti,
