

60 Years in 30 Minutes: Lessons Dad Lived

CHEAT SHEET FOR THE TEST OF LIFE...There were decisions I made that would have been different had my father been around. I had questions that I needed answers to, but no one to ask. This book was written so that you would have answers and stories without having to ask the questions. Essentially, this is a game plan, or at least a play book, assembled to inform and help you to decipher the important life situations I once needed, and now have the answers to. Intertwined within are the positive experiences of life as well, which will allow you to live a great life. From business and finances to relationships and living well, there are lessons for everyone. Friends and money - how much you can learn about someone just by noticing who buys the first round. Pay your bills on time - one day late haunts you for seven years. Treat the gatekeeper well. In business you have to get by the front desk person to get to the decision maker. Keep it clean. Have half the house and twice the cash. Go out and make memories. Do whats best for you. Expect others to do whats best for them.
