

Enmity

War has taken a strangle hold of Europe, the new order of the Third Reich goes smashing through all defences that the British put up against them and nothing seems capable of stopping them. All except, that is, for one girl who holds the secrets to the difference between victory and total failure for the British. But she herself will be tested in these hard times as the secrets of her dark past overshadows her future, secrets that even she herself is only beginning to understand. As the war continues on relentlessly and important lives come under risk the hopes of the entire world now fall upon this one young girl and the amazing talents that she herself can barely begin to comprehend
