

Filtered Heart: Filtered Heart: Thoughts and questions on the melee of life

Filtered heart is 17 poems, inspired by everyday life; a poem for each and every day, for everyone. In a sometimes witty, always questioning and inspiring way, these flowing verses come easy to read and filter the heart. Titles are straight from the melee of life and include: The face and the thought, Fear is like a skin you wear, and What is it that makes you tick. Questions about who we are and what we hope and feel for, are asked.
