

My Words Mean Something

In this volume of poetry, Jorge Reyes, writer of the highly acclaimed, Rediscovering Cuba: A Personal Memoir, offers his readers a reflection of the warm essence of human sentiment. Reyes poetry is profound and insightful, penetrating deep into the realms of human emotion and putting us in contact with our innermost feelings. The poems vary in subject, from a celebration of love and friendship to nature, life and death. With the tranquil beauty that can be translated into a slow dance of the soul, Reyes has the ability to amaze and mystify, making us more aware of the endless possibilities of particular moments of experience. My words mean something, offers the reader not only poems that are beautiful but poems that question human existence with ardor and immediacy.
