

On My Way To The Market

Have you ever started out to the store with a simple list. . . that at some point never seemed to end? Well, this little girl thought shopping would be a breeze but instead she had to learn to remember all the things that her mother kept adding! So she ended up depending on the old song, The Twelve Days of Christmas. Use this song melody to sing your way through this story of shopping in the vegetable market. Check the glossary in the back to learn a little about the vegetables and fruits.
