

The Refugees, Vol. 3: A Tale of Two Continents (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Refugees, Vol. 3: A Tale of Two Continents Thanks to the early tidings which the guardsman had brought with him, his little party was now ahead of the news. As they passed through the village of Louvier in the early morning they caught a glimpse of a naked corpse upon a dunghill, and were told by a grinning watchman that it was that of a Huguenot who had died impenitent, but that was a common enough occurrence already and did not mean that there had been any change in the law.
