

What is Diversity?: the story behind a global song

What is Diversity? is a graceful account of how someone who did not belong anywhere could find an internal place to call home by expanding her horizons and her notions of what she considered normal. Multicultural, singer-songwriter and book author Haikaa shares her experiences of growing up and living in societies with often contradicting concepts of right or wrong. Haikaa discusses issues ranging from sexuality to ethics, from beauty to consumption, from health to democracy from the perspective of diversity. She also takes us on a musical journey by writing about her project The Work of Art Global Song where she put into practice her appreciation of diversity. With the help of a global team of over forty people, Haikaa recorded her own music in more than twenty languages. Through musical and personal accounts, What is Diversity? is above all a book that celebrates the global diversity that kindly allows each and every one of us to find a place in this world.
