

Commentary on St. Pauls Epistle to the Romans, Vol. 2 (Classic Reprint)

Chaps. VI.-VIII. SANCTIFICATION. FIRST SECTION (VI. 1-VII. 6). THE PRINCIPLE OF SANCTIFICATION CONTAINED IN JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH (continued.) FIFTEENTH PASSAGE (VII. 1-6). The Believer is set free from the Law at the same Time as he is set free from Sin, AGREEABLY to the proposition stated vi. 14: Sin shall no more have dominion over you: for ye are under grace the apostle had just expounded emancipation from sin by subjection to grace. But he had said: For ye are no under the law, but under grace. And the words underlined required a special explanation. It is this demonstration which is furnished by the following passage. In his view the two emancipations, that free man from sin and that free man from the law, are two closely connected facts, so that the one is the complement of the other. Also between the descriptions of the two deliverances there is to be remarked a parallelism of figures which extends to the slightest details of the two descriptions. It is easy to see how exactly vii. 1-4 corresponds to vi. 16-19. ODET. A. N. O. M. II. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
