

It Happened in Egypt

Alice Muriel Williamson (1869 - September 24, 1933) was a British novelist. Born Alice Muriel Livingston, she married Charles Norris Williamson (1859-1920) in 1894 and many of her books were jointly written with her husband. Charles Norris (C N) Williamson (1859-1920) was a British writer, motoring journalist and founder of the Black and White newspaper who was perhaps best known for his collaboration with his wife, Alice Muriel Williamson, in a number of novels and travelogues. Several of the Williamsons short stories and novels later became films.
