

Take It Back: Due Season is Here

Words from the author To the readers of this book, I bring to you good news. God is saying it is time to proclaim the victory. He desires for His children to receive what rightfully belongs to them. It is now due season for the kingdom of God is at hand. The time has come for His children to take back what was predestined to be theirs. God desire for His people to now start reaching out, and taking a hold of their blessings and, never letting go. It is time to reach out in faith and receive what God is so willing to give to us all His Love.

Satan is on his job to deceive the seed of Abraham. He desires to interrupt the plans of God. He is not after your flesh, but your soul. He thrives on his ability to deceive, and rob you of your inheritance. He desires to put you under his control in order to win your soul. He is determined to fool you into believing God does not exist. His daily job is to destroy what God has created. It is our duty and our right to tell him he is a liar, and a thief and we demand him in the name of Jesus to flee. It is time now to unite together. God has and still is in control. We should look deep within and use what God has already instilled in us. We all have his love, His mercy and forgiveness. We must stir up the anointing, and call on the power behind the name of Jesus. His word is here for us to learn and receive the power of the Holy Ghost as guidance through our trials and tribulations. We need to be steadfast in the knowledge that God is our father and know that Satan has no authority over His people. It is time to step out in faith without wavering. The two cannot, and will not co-exist in a child of God. The true reality is faith without action, or vision is dead.

I pray that these poems help inspire you to take back what is rightfully yours. I pray also that we set our minds on receiving by faith the gifts of God both spiritual and in the natural. I stand secure in stating with out a shadow of doubt. It is time now to take back everything Satan has and tried to steal away. Finally, I would like to say thank you to Pastor Alvin Edwards a true man of God that I have the great privilege of growing under his ministry.
