

Krapps Last Tape and Other Shorter Plays

Krapps Last Tape was first performed by Patrick Magee at the Royal Court Theatre in October 1958, and described as a solo, if that is the word, for one voice and two organs: one human, one mechanical. It fills few pages. It is perhaps the most original and important play of its length ever written. (Roy Walker)The present volume brings together Krapps Last Tape and Becketts other shorter works or dramaticules written for the stage. It will be complemented by a forthcoming Faber edition of dramatic works written for radio and screen. Arranged in chronological order of composition, these shorter plays exhibit the laconic means and compassionate ends of Becketts dramatic vision. KRAPP Here I end this reel. Box - [Pause.] - three, spool - [Pause.] - five. [Pause.] Perhaps my best years have gone. When there was a chance of happiness. But I wouldnt want them back. Not with the fire in me now. No, I wouldnt want them back. [Staring motionless before him.]
