

The Root and the Flower (Twentieth Century Classics)

First published in 1935, this trilogy is set in exotic 16th-century India and records a succession of dynastic struggles during the reign of Akbar the great Mogul. It is an absorbing story of war, betrayal, intrigue, and political power, as well as a moving study of the spiritual strengths and weaknesses of Myers characters. An exciting exotic adventure story...a remarkable work of imagination.--Iris Murdoch
