

New and Selected Poems

A collection that brings together the very best of Michael Foley's irreverent, satirical, and often controversial poetry. Michael Foley is one of Northern Ireland's best-loved poets and has been writing since the late sixties. He has published four collections of poetry, most notably Insomnia in the Afternoon and Autumn Beguiles the Fatalist. A compilation of some of his best over three decades of work and providing a wide ranging assortment of history and culture of the modern son of Ireland.-The Midwest Book Review Sept. 2011
