

New Horizons (Oakley)

Fate makes no distinction between people, no matter what their station in life. Endeavour, dedication and enthusiasm reap their own rewards for rich and poor alike, whilst sickness and misfortune often present serious challenges which require faith, hope and courage to overcome. The inhabitants of Oakley experience the whole range of human emotion from the heights of great joy to the abyss of deep desolation. They live, love, laugh, fight and struggle during their rollercoaster journey through the story of this close knit community which depends on the success of the Evans family, the owners of the thriving cotton mill upon which they all rely to sustain their livelihood. This absorbing story is inspired by a previous non-fiction book written by the author some years ago. The characters who live their lives in Oakley are fictional but true to life.
