

Rendezvous with the Ancients: First Steps

When Cowboy Tom finds a crystal helmet his consciousness is transported back in time, to another body, in an ancient civilization more advanced than today's. Tom finds himself involved in the lives of the people there. Tom is made commander of a space ship and is provided with a crew. The Earth is attacked and they find themselves in a war against an alien race. Tom discovers that his Navigators (Vic) parents were lost in space for 10 years. They explore several planets in search of his parents, and the diverse inhabitants are questioned to try to find Vics parents. Each planet has its own unique situation that they have to overcome.
