

Candide (Modern Plays)

All the worlds an Xbox and youre a playerCandide is an optimist. A dreamer. He believes that everything is for the best in the best of all possible worlds. But that belief is about to be tested as Candides comfortable life is overtaken by an endless barrage of misfortune. First published in 1759, the story traces the journey of a young man who leads a sheltered life, believing that mankind lives in the best of all possible worlds and that everything happens for the best. But Candides happiness comes to a sharp end when he is unfairly evicted from his uncles castle for kissing his cousin and true love, Lady Cunegonde. Cast out into the big wide world, Candide is forced to confront reality.As his world collapses around him, we are transported across the centuries to new locations and parallel universes. How will Candides optimism fare when it collides with life in the twenty-first century?
