

Queen Zixi of Ix; or, Story of the Magic Cloak, The (Large Print)

A Really-Truly Fairy-Story. The very title is unique and alluring, and it foretells a great feast of fun and fancy, in which Mr. Baums whimsical imagination is at its best. The story has both a hero and a heroine, a boy and a girl--King Bud and Princess Fluff--and very wonderful things befall them. And besides the charming Queen Zixi of Ix, there is a fine array of remarkable characters, including Aunt Rivette, the five High Counselors: Tallydab, Tellydeb, etc., Jikki, the kings valet, the firece Roly-Rogues, and others. Illustrated with seventy-six drawings.
