

Defeat & Victory

1865-1866: The War Between the States is in its final stage and in Mexico the War between the Second Mexican Empire and the Republic of Mexico is in its crucial phase. Defeated followers of the cause for independence for the Confederate States of America look elsewhere to move from their lost nation to others like Mexico, Brazil, Venezuela, British Honduras and Europe where they hope to establish colonies that will maintain the traditions of the lost Confederacy. In Mexico most confederate veterans support the Empire but first one and then two Cavalry Divisions of grey veterans give their service to the Republican side in exchange of promises of land and Mexican nationality, mostly in the State of Durango. The Empire has established four colonies of confederate veterans who have now the duty of protecting these as part of a Cavalry Division and a Infantry Division of grey imperial militia. Others looking for a little more than a piece of land join the armies of Europe, always primed for war. Especially a developing war between the Austrian Empire and Kingdom of Prussia for control of Germany.
