

The Fourth Face of The Goddess

...What is the Fourth Face of the Goddess? She is the Dark Moon, the opposite of the Full Moon...She is the hidden face. She shows us the darkest pieces of ourselves... In Her peaceful night, we can pull these out unafraid...May She bless and keep us all...So begins this book of original poetry. Stories about Nature, Goddesses and Gods, and adventures in timeless realms of fantasy mingle with Haiku of the Tarots major arcana. Words that delve deep into the human heart and its quest for peace are illustrated with works of original art, and a wealth of photographs. Written by a Wiccan priestess and witch, this will speak to those familiar with that path, but also illuminates the teachings and legends of Wicca for every reader. Poems about the eight high holidays of pagan tradition and meditations on the Quarters are included, and selections taken from the authors CD of words and music Never Again the Burning.
