

The REDHOUSE Project

The author and illustrator of the hilariously funny The Presidents Men turns the page from his humorous side and now brings you a scintillating action packed adventure. Die Hard, Spy Game, and State of Play all rolled in one dynamic package. American investigative journalist Frank Bolan has a problem. Moscow wants him six feet down, or in a body bag. It doesn't matter. They'll take it any way they can get it, and Bolan doesn't have a clue as to the reason. That is no way to begin a career. Assigned to do background research on the two candidates vying for political office Bolan finds the world around him transforming into a graveyard. It is filling up fast, especially with his friends. The clues lead him to Greece where he encounters a goddess of a woman named Nikkie. She is the perfect tour guide. In the French Alps the CIA team assigned as his homeward bound escort service to ensure his safe return to the United States, find themselves outgunned and outmanned. The gloves are dropped in this international thriller and Frank Bolan discovers that he is caught in a global chess match between two grandmasters and there is simply nowhere to hide. Why has the Kremlin issued a Terminate On Site order on this private American? Only time will tell! And time, that eternal sly fox, is an entity which is fast running out for all involved. Many Thanks to Reviewer Max Read. You can see his review below. I am grateful to him for moving me to step back from my busy life and to finally sit down and edit my novel. I appreciate him having the ability to see the value of the substance and to still give the novel 4-stars and not have allowed the editing errors to sway his judgment. Because of him, you are now presented with this newly minted version. It is my hope that your experience will exceed the 4-star barrier. Enjoy the journey and may it be a glorious one for you!
