

Targets Of Opportunity

Devlin Lancaster-a retired U.S. Navy SEAL-is currently the number one assassin for the C.I.A.s highly covert The Human Being Organization. Whenever there is a crime committed of such severity that it is labeled a crime against humanity, and then, for whatever reason, the criminal escapes justice, Devlin is dispatched to render ultimate justice. This is the story of his final targets: targets from out of his past, targets that bring him back to the little town he grew up in-where he went to high school, and where he now meets and falls in love with his future wife. It is the covert war against terrorism, fought from the streets of Norfolk, Virginia, all the way to high in the mountains of central Colorado.
