

THE HALL : what every parent should not read!

The Hall is one young mans adventures as he lives through his Freshman year in college. The novel starts at the beginning, in his home on Long Island, onto an epic journey to a mythical college in upstate New York, and then, through the months that he becomes involved with his dorm life, his adventures with his new friends, and culminating with his first involvement with a young woman. As the story unfolds, The Hall explores the complexities of dormitory life and how they intertwine with the characters that I present to the reader. Many of the characters are based on real people that I had met in college. Their memories have left a lasting impression on me and I have decided to tell of their adventures and mine, too in a book that I can share with others. It is important to note that I have changed the characters real names to names of my own invention. I have also written the events in the story so that they have a fictional context to them and are in no way related to real people or mention real places. I hope that you enjoy reading The Hall and that we can do business with each other in the future.

Thank You

Len Nicholas
