

Measles and Sneezles

This collection of poems intended as a bedtime companion is for all children who may be feeling a bit off colour. The poems aim to make sick children giggle but also deals more seriously with the problems and feelings that ill children encounter. Jennifer Curry is a judge at the annual Cadburys Award for Childrens Poetry, writes poems herself and has collaborated with her son on numerous anthologies for children, amongst them Around The World In Eighty Poems and My Name, My Poem
