Divorced, unattached and solvent, Ruby Blue had managed to get her act together after a turbulent marriage and traumatic divorce from Alex Dunbar, father of her four sons. She relocated, had enjoyed ten years with a man half her own age, and single again, flourished in an exciting social scene with a wide circle of friends. Life was good and she was in control, until, Hi. Orlando Gloom, forty-one, was a talented stonemason. He lived on his partially restored boat with an overriding goal to get it seaworthy again. Classically handsome, but moody and reclusive, Orlando was known as a loner. He didnt want a relationship and was definitely not interested in older women. But he had stolen Rubys heart. Against the odds, she was compelled to make a bid for his. . . Free spirited, fun loving Ruby challenges societys stereotypes in an exciting, erotic and engaging look at life.
