

Tommy and Lizzy in Eden: Imagine That

Imagination and visualization is the birth place of dreams and innovations of things yet to be. The desire of PND Works and Imagine That is to speak to children in the manner of child-like understanding of moral standing through periods of personal growth. Entertainment abounds with flashing lights, loud music and videos. seem to over shadow self-exercising of imagination while young minds are simply entertained in the name of entertainment. Through the media of the actual reading of carefully chosen written words, and artwork of characters who defy racial or ethnic definition, our goal at PND Works and Imagine That is to stir self to imagination and vision. To do this we invite young minds into a world of simple stories of historical interest in a context of moral choices. Without fertile ground to nurture good healthy growth to guide young minds the value of dreams and innovations will be lost.
