

When life gives you lemons...Eat them with a smile

These poems tell the true story of the authors adolescence and transition into adulthood as she overcomes the fear and depression that years of abuse and neglect have left her with. This powerful book of poetry follows a young womans path from despair and self-loathing to a place of learning and strength. It is meant to be read in order to guide the reader through a heart-wrenching and empowering anthology that will leave them in awe.
