

Whispers From Heaven

The poems that I write I pray will give hope and comfort to people that are going through a crisis in their life. I want people to never give up and feel all is lost and to know that God is always there beside you. I am living proof of this as I have had three major operations on my back, a quadruple by-pass surgery, 7 stints put in my heart, part of one lung removed because of lung cancer, and to top it off I am a diabetic on insulin. Two years ago, I was declared legally blind because of the cataracts on both eyes. Yet, here I am today living a normal life and I give all the credit to the Grace and Mercy Of My Loving Father in Heaven.
