

Dust Sheet

Whisked away like an illusionists cape or shaken out in the street, Dust Sheet throws off a cloud in which the world is made strange. Here, the everyday is perpetually on the point of tipping over into mystery: a disused phone box becomes a portal, a cup of coffee swims with visions, a discarded surgical glove points towards a parallel reality. Here, people are driven by their obsessions: drinking rainwater with a fork or trying to formulate a new theory of everything. In this universe, imaginary figures - the contrarian, the imperfectionist - exist alongside the marginal of history - the Renaissance artist Piero di Cosimo and the Dutch biologist Jan Swammerdam. Informed by philosophy, with a lyric sensibility and an appetite for formal variety, the poems in Dust Sheet seek to restore and re-enchant the overlooked.
